

GREETERS' RAMBLE FELLOWSHIP FEAST

Hotel Clerks to Have Help of Fellows From Other Big Cities.

Good fellowship is to be the keynote of the Greeters' "Ramble" and vaudeville show, which is to feature the gathering of hotel clerks of the Eastern States in Washington tomorrow night. The members of the Washington Hotel Clerks' Association are to be hosts, and guests will come from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston and numerous other cities where hotels make use of the genial fellows affiliated with the Greeters of America.

The entire city of Washington is to be open for the visitors tomorrow, but in the evening hours of their visit, they are expected to centralize at Convention Hall, Fifth and K streets northwest, where the entertainment will include vaudeville, a banquet and dancing.

For the past three or four weeks every hotel clerk in Washington has been practicing the fish walk, the turkey strut, the ruin and the Boston clip, and at a special meeting of the "Greeters" last night at the New Willard it was openly declared that when President Edgar C. Spees calls for the formation of the Greeters' Ramble all members will be thoroughly prepared to respond to any kind of a dance called.

The vaudeville features, as arranged by A. Julian Brylawski, are expected to be the last word in tabloid burlesque. Each act has been selected by an individual member of the association, and all are expected to be thoroughly agreeable to the board of censorship. The Greeters, whose artistry is to provide the vaudeville features, are enumerated on the program as follows: Carlisle W. Johns, song and dance number; William B. Dittmar, a comic monologue; Edgar C. Spees, some 1000 kilowatt brilliancy; Frank X. (Ten Spot) Daly, an offering of frolicsome foolishness; Edgar C. Spees, some 1000 kilowatt brilliancy; Frank X. (Ten Spot) Daly, an offering of frolicsome foolishness; Edgar C. Spees, some 1000 kilowatt brilliancy; Frank X. (Ten Spot) Daly, an offering of frolicsome foolishness.

After Herr Brylawski rings down the curtain President and Mrs. Edgar C. Spees will lead the guests through a kaleidoscopic maze bewildering to the chaste and bewildering to the chaste.

The invitation that will bring numerous hotel clerks from Eastern cities to Washington on Tuesday for the "Greeters' Ramble," had the following introduction: "The Greeters of Washington extend to you a warm greeting on this, the night of all nights, where, for the night, we hope that you will be able to see the Greeters of Washington in the 'Open Sesame' to a night of mirth, revelry and gay good cheer."

Police Halt Speech.

Carle Brown, one of "General" Cokey's former lieutenants, who has been making speeches around the city for some time, was not permitted to deliver an address at Tenth street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest last night. Brown has a permit to speak on the streets three nights a week, but Sunday night was not included in the license, so when Brown mounted a soap box and started to tell his hearers what was the trouble with the universe in general, the police stepped up and told him he would have to wait until this evening to exercise his vocal chords in public.

ANACOSTIA POLICE VETERAN IS DEAD

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.

ANACOSTIA, D. C., Oct. 27.

Albert V. Conway, who was a station-keeper in the Metropolitan Police Department twenty years ago, died suddenly yesterday, at the residence of J. V. Conway, his son, with whom he made his home, at Nichols avenue and Morris road. Death was due to heart failure. He had been in failing health for a number of years.

Mr. Conway was a familiar figure in Anacostia, where he was well known. He was a native of Alexandria, Va. He was seventy-one years old. Much of his police service was performed in the Georgetown precinct, where he was assigned for ten years.

Mr. Conway is survived by his wife, one son, and one daughter. Funeral arrangements will be announced later, but it is probable the last rites will be held from the home of his son and that the burial will be made in Congressional Cemetery.

Presbyterians here will go to Baltimore this week to attend two important conventions of church bodies. There will be a general representation of members of the denomination from Washington as well. The annual meeting of the synod of the presbyteries of Washington city, Baltimore, Md., and New Castle, Del., will begin this evening. It will end on Wednesday night. Pastors and delegates from Presbyterian churches in the jurisdictions named will attend, with laymen generally.

William A. Snell has been named as a delegate from the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church. Mr. W. A. Snell will attend the meetings of the Women's Society as local representative.

Dr. and Mrs. Shepherd L. Franks have returned to the Government Hospital for the Insane after a stay in New York city.

Juveniles of the German Orphan Asylum, in Good Hope road, feasted yesterday in honor of Simon Wolf, the honorary president of the institution. It was an advance celebration of his birthday. Ice cream and cakes were sent to the children by Mr. Wolf in commemoration of his anniversary.

When Superintendent and Mrs. Priel informed the children of Mr. Wolf's donation and then served the delicacies.

there was joy throughout the home, and the little inmates resolved to find a way to let Mr. Wolf know that they had received and enjoyed the treat from him.

Simon Wolf, one of Washington's prominent citizens, has been a pioneer for the orphan since 1878, when his recommendations were adopted concerning the erection of an asylum in Anacostia for orphans. He has been before Congress many times and obtained funds for the maintenance of the orphanage.

There will be a matinee at the Government Hospital for the Insane on Wednesday afternoon. It will be a moving picture exhibition, held in the afternoon in order to afford some of the aged ones cared for in the asylum an opportunity to visit the show during the day, something it is not feasible for them to do at night, which is usual time for moving picture shows, which are held in Hitchcock Hall. There will be no exhibition on Friday night in consequence of the matinee on Wednesday.

Epworth Leaguers will go from the Congress Heights Methodist Episcopal Church tonight to Rust Hall, North Capitol and M streets northwest, to attend the opening of the mission study class, which will be started as the outcome of the Epworth League institute held in the city several weeks ago. Representatives will attend the mission study classes from each Epworth League chapter in the District, after which they will return to their respective churches and form classes which they will teach themselves.

Catholics in Congress Heights will attend a dance and a euchre party tomorrow night in a hall at Eighth and G streets southeast, the entertainment to be for the benefit of their Sunday school, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Early. The Sunday school will send about twenty children to the confirmation class in St. Teresa's Church, next Sunday afternoon.

TORTURED BY UGLY ITCHING ERUPTION

Doctor Recommended Resinol. Half of a 50c Jar Cured It.

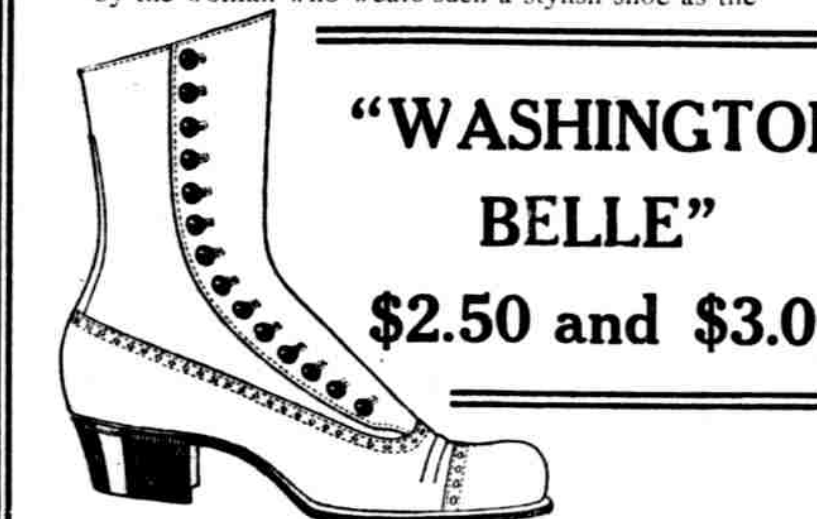

Baltimore, Md.—"My little daughter was taken with a very small spot on the back of her hand. It grew larger and caused her more trouble. When she would scratch it, it would bleed and get very ugly looking, so I doctored it myself for about a year, and at last it broke out on both knees, and when she would go to bed she would scratch, and was so tortured and suffered so from the itching, that I took her to our doctor, who recommended Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment.

Improved with First Application. "I sent for samples and after the first application the itching and inflammation was improved, and I kept it up night and morning, and by the time the sample was gone she complained very little, so I got a 50-cent jar, and before that was half gone, the trouble had entirely disappeared." (Signed) Mrs. Maude Schmechel, 2737 Presbury St., Nov. 5, 1912.

Nothing we can say of Resinol equals what others, such as Mrs. Schmechel, say of it. If you are suffering from itching, burning skin troubles, pimples, blackheads, dandruff, ulcers, boils, stubborn sores, or piles, try Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. The nearest druggist sells them, or write to Dept. 20-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a free sample.—Advt.

BIDS ON BIG SCHOOL OPENED THIS WEEK

Architect Hopes to See Ground
Broken Early in December
For New Structure.

Bids will be opened about November 1 on the contract to build the Central High School, to be located at Thirteenth and Clifton streets northwest. Plans and specifications for buildings and grounds to cost $1,500,000 have been completed by Municipal Architect Snowden Ashford, and it is said that building operations on the new school will be under way early in December. The building is expected to be completed in two years.

An appropriation of $500,000 has been set aside for the building, and $200,000 will be devoted to an athletic field and stadium adjoining the school, which will be one of the most finely appointed high school athletic fields in this section of the country.

Two-Week Retreat At St. Patrick's

SCOTTISH RITE MEN LEAVE FOR HOMES

Next Session, in 1915, Will Be Held in Temple Now Being Built.

Members of the Supreme Council, Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, A. A. S. R., who remained in Washington over Sunday, will leave during the day, and Washington will not see another gathering of that important body for two more years.

The biennial memorial services of the Supreme Council were held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, Third and E streets northwest, yesterday. T. W. Hugo, newly crowned sovereign grand inspector general for Minnesota, and the youngest member of the Supreme Council, delivered the oration. He lauded the deeds of Albert Pike, former grand commander of the Scottish Rite Southern Jurisdiction, and paid an eloquent tribute to his memory.

Grand Commander James D. Richardson presided at the memorial service. The next meeting of the Supreme Council will be held probably at the New Scottish Rite Temple, now under construction at the Avenue of the Presidents and 8 street.
